

PHOTOGRAPHER

The Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience (GFURR) is hosting the first Blacksburg Blockchain Summit (Summit) on April 20, 2018 and is in need of a short-term, contract photographer to document the all-day Summit on April 20, and possibly an intimate event on the evening of the April 19th.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provide professional-level photographic documentation of the Summit. This will involve staging, planning for lighting, planning for key shoots of speakers, audience members, and interactions etc. to ensure high-quality photos. Develop a library of shoots which can be uploaded to our website and use in future press materials.

APPLICATION INFORMATION:

- Please submit an electronic portfolio and pay requirements to Ben Coleman (bencolem@vt.edu) as soon as possible, but no later than February 9.
- GFURR is also looking for a contract web designer and graphic designer for this event as well, if you would like to submit for these contract positions please include those portfolios by the date above.

ABOUT US:

The Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience brings together university researchers and partner organizations to facilitate conversations about patterns and processes of urbanization and regional development, with a special emphasis on the long-term resilience of places and communities. The particular focus of the Forum is the evolutionary and transformational resilience of cities and the way that places adapt – or not – to flows of capital, people, resources, and ideas.
