

VIDEOGRAPHER

The Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience (GFURR) is hosting the first Blacksburg Blockchain Summit (Summit) on April 20, 2018 and is in need of a short-term, contract videographer to document and edit video for: (a) The all-day event on April 20, 2018; (b) two (2) brief (5-10 minute) interviews in mid-March 2018; and, (c) with several notable participants on March 19 and/or 20th.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Set up and record several brief, 5-10 minute interviews with notable participants. This will involve staging, planning for lighting and checking sound levels, etc. to ensure high-quality videos which can be uploaded to our website.
- Record the full-day event on April 20, 2018. This will involve staging, planning where to put the camera(s), checking light and sound levels, etc. to ensure the quality of the recording. After the event, editing will be required to separate the long video files into shorter videos more digestible for a general audience.

Editing decisions will be a collaborative process that includes the Forum.

APPLICATION INFORMATION:

- Please submit a video portfolio and pay requirements to Ben Coleman (bencolem@vt.edu) as soon as possible, but no later than February 9.
- GFURR is also looking for a contract web designer and graphic designer for this event as well, if you would like to submit for these contract positions please include those portfolios by the date above.

ABOUT US:

The Global Forum on Urban and Regional Resilience brings together university researchers and partner organizations to facilitate conversations about patterns and processes of urbanization and regional development, with a special emphasis on the long-term resilience of places and communities. The particular focus of the Forum is the evolutionary and transformational resilience of cities and the way that places adapt – or not – to flows of capital, people, resources, and ideas.